

DYING TO KNOW DAY

Friday 8 August | 11am - 1pm

21 Scott St Heywood

A day to build awareness and understanding around end-of-life choices.

It encourages open conversations about death, dying, and grief-reducing stigma and supporting better planning for the future.

Join us for an information session with Aunty Janice.

- ☝ Reflect on your wishes for end-of-life care and make them known
- ☝ Start open conversations about death, dying, and what matters most
- ☝ Join events and discussions to learn about advance care planning
- ☝ Think ahead - What's your plan?
- ☝ Plan early to support growing palliative care needs

Light lunch provided
Note: this is a child-free session
