ARTISTEOI

We are looking for Indigenous artists to deliver art therapy as part of trauma informed suicide prevention sessions for Aboriginal women across Perth.

Our Vision is to deliver trauma-informed, Aboriginal-led Suicide Prevention sessions across Perth with awareness raising, training, artwork and self-care components to Indigenous women.

About the Sessions:

- 20 sessions monthly around Perth metro and Peel region
- Funded by the Mental Health Commission of WA until June 2027

What we are looking for:

- Artists across various artforms who can teach or guide participants as part of an art healing workshop
