NSW Aboriginal Child &
Family Conference
19-21 November 2019

Dear Supporter,

We're thrilled to announce the inaugural NSW Aboriginal Child & Family Awards!

Do you know a great person or organisation that has made outstanding achievements to improve outcomes for our children and families?

AbSec will celebrate those working to support Aboriginal children, families and communities at the NSW Aboriginal Child & Family Conference in November, the ceremony being held at the Conference Dinner.

SO, WHO WILL YOU NOMINATE?

AWARDS CATEGORIES

- 1. Community Member of the Year – recognises the positive impact on the wellbeing of families and communities of an Aboriginal community member.
- 2. Carer of the Year – recognises the remarkable contributions of a carer for an Aboriginal child or young person.
- 3. Practitioner of the Year – recognises an Aboriginal practitioner's excellence in achieving positive outcomes for Aboriginal children and young people.
- 4. ACCO of the Year – recognises an Aboriginal community controlled organisation achieving lasting positive outcomes for Aboriginal children and their families and demonstrating excellence in service delivery.
- 5. Walking Together Award – recognises the contribution of a non-Aboriginal agency in partnering with Aboriginal communities.
- 6. Young Person of the Year – recognises the achievements of an Aboriginal young person (under 25 years) and their contribution to the community.

Nominate a great person or organisation who deserves to be recognised for their amazing work!

You must register for the Conference Dinner (19 November) to attend the awards presentation: <https://www.absec.org.au/register.html>
