

Earlier Intervention and Family Support Services

Upcoming Commissioning Opportunities for Earlier Intervention and Family Support (EIFS) Services.

The Department of Communities will be going to market for all EIFS services, with an anticipated service commencement date of 1 July 2024. These services include:

Intensive Family Support Service (IFSS)

Family Support Network (FSN)

Aboriginal In-home Support Service (AISS)

Regional Service Model

Preparation Session

The EIFS Project team invites all Service Providers, Community Services Organisations, Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations, and locally invested community members to attend a Preparation Session. The sessions will include:

- Information about the EIFS services and the commissioning approach for each of the services, including the processes for submissions, evaluation, and award, along with the estimated timing for each stage of the process.
- Estimated release date for the Requests to go to the market.
- Time for Questions and Answers about the procurement activities.

Registration

To register attendance for a session, please use the Registration link. Light catering, tea and coffee will be provided at each location. If you have any further questions, please email earlierinterventionandfamilysupport@communities.wa.gov.au
