

Expression of Interest

An invitation to local Aboriginal artists

SWAMS is seeking expressions of interest from talented and innovative Aboriginal artists to bring life to it's Tackling Indigenous Smoking (TIS) Program. This is a unique opportunity for Aboriginal artists who live within the South West, Great Southern, Wheatbelt or Peel regions to create a visual story that supports and conveys the following TIS message:

- No smoking or vaping in community
- Stopping people from starting to smoke or vape
- Connects to country, cultural identity and represents the local Aboriginal community

We are looking for an artist who:

- Identifies as Aboriginal
- Resides in either the South West, Great Southern, Wheatbelt or Peel regions
- Can collaborate effectively with our team to bring the vision to life.

Your expression of interest needs to include:

1. An artist's CV, including at least 3 examples of your artwork
2. A detailed sketch of your idea, and a brief description.

Submit your expression of interest by 4pm, Friday 12th January 2024:

Online: bit.ly/swams-tis

Email:
communications@swams.com.au

Postal:
Unit 3/30 Wellington Street,
Bunbury WA 6230

Submissions will be evaluated on creativity, alignment with the TIS message and connection to culture across all 4 regions. Artists will retain copyright to their ideas unless they are successful in their submission.

The successful artist will be paid $6000

Expressions of Interest close
4pm, Friday 12th
January 2024

Successful artist
will be notified,
Friday 19th January
2024

Artwork to be completed by Friday 23rd February 2024.
The final artwork will be presented on a canvas which will be provided by SWAMS and is to be developed using high quality acrylic paints.

Please phone 9797 8111 or 1800 779 000 for more information.

TACKLING INDIGENOUS SMOKING

Australian Government
Department of Health and Aged Care