Chief Executive Officer - The Healing Foundation

- Canberra based - full time position
- Strategic acumen and vision the key to success
- An Identified position for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander candidates

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Healing Foundation (The Healing Foundation) is a national Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisation with a focus on building culturally strong, community led healing solutions. We support organisations around the country to design and deliver healing programs that work for their communities.

Together with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, we:

- work with survivors of the Stolen Generations to create their own healing responses;
- support children and young people and their families to improve their social and emotional wellbeing;
- build the leadership and the capacity of communities and workers to respond to trauma through education and training;
- develop the evidence base for best practice Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander healing; and
- share our knowledge of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander healing with communities, government and non-government organisations around Australia.

Reporting to the Board the CEO delivers on the strategic objectives of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Healing Foundation by working with them to develop a national vision and strategies for addressing trauma and healing and providing strategic and operational leadership to implement and achieve such organisational aspirations.

Selection criteria;

- demonstrated knowledge and understanding of the current and historical aspects of issues affecting members of the Stolen Generation and the broader Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community;
- demonstrated leadership capability
- sound business acumen and leadership
- communication and stakeholder management
- strong personal characteristics and qualities
