

Barmah Health Service

Strong Focus on Holistic and Integrated Care for women from all culturally diverse backgrounds

GP - Fellowed Recruitment Advert

Our passionate and multidisciplinary team of qualified and experienced health practitioners including GP's and Allied Health professionals, providing holistic and high-quality health care to women from culturally and diverse communities throughout the region.

Our service will be opening a new Women's Health clinic in Moama NSW at our new location in late September 2020. Linking residents with a range of healthcare providers, the BHSS Clinic will be the centre for primary health care services for Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people women living in Moama, Deniliquin, Barham, and Balranald.

Our vision is to deliver best practice holistic primary health to women from all diverse backgrounds. Our clinic is innovative, and we are always seeking improvements to benefit our patients/clients and the team. This is an exciting time to join our team and contribute to improving the health and wellbeing of the local community

About the Opportunity

The GP will report to the CEO and you will be an important part of the Health Services Primary Health Team providing culturally appropriate clinical and primary health care services, to the women across the border from Echuca/ Moama, and as far as Barham, Deniliquin, and Balranald.

BHSS would like to receive expressions of interest from anyone who has a passion for delivering culturally safe, holistic, and client-focused care to our women and can demonstrate a keen interest in becoming part of our multidisciplinary team.

Key aspects of the role include:

- Working collaboratively with members of the clinical team to ensure the effective delivery of Primary Health care services to diverse groups of women in the community.
- Collaborating with the clinical and allied health team to conduct health checks on clients.
- Assisting other clinical staff requiring community, cultural assistance with clients
- Providing advice and education to clients on all aspects of their health and wellbeing
- Delivery of immunisations (credentialed to do so) as per the Australian Immunisation Schedule
- Collaborating closely with Allied Health and visiting specialists on the care of clients.

About You

To be considered for this position, you will ideally have:

What Do You Need To Apply?

- Unrestricted working rights within Australia
- Current AHPRA registration as a Specialist GP
- Fellow of RACGP or ACCRM
- Knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures, values and beliefs
- Current Police and Working With Children Clearances
- Current Indemnity Insurance Certificate

Ideally, in addition to the above, the successful candidate would also meet the following criteria:

- Experience working with women from diverse groups and indigenous community and
- Knowledge of Best Practice and RACGP guidelines and accreditation process.

On Offer:

- 60-70% Billings: Bulk & Private services
- Flexible Employment Arrangement
- Opportunity to grow the current patient base
- Marketing of special interests offered
- Modern facility and IT systems in place
- Weekday Hours - No weekends
- RN & Onsite Allied Health professionals
- Separate Treatment Room
- Best Practice Software
- Future Partnership opportunities!

Boasting one of the fastest-growing areas in the region, the location is highly desired for families, couples, and singles attracting those who enjoy the great outdoors along with a relaxed country lifestyle - recently making the list of Top 10 Holiday 'hot spots' in Australia. We are very keen to meet and talk with GPs who match our vision, values and motivations.

Please note there is no closing date for this advertisement.

Applications will be assessed as received and interviews scheduled accordingly. BHSS reserves the right to withdraw this advertisement without further notice, therefore we encourage interested candidates to submit their application without delay.

For further information about this role or to forward your Expression of Interest email info@bhss.org.au

