

ABORIGINAL CASE MANAGER - BENDIGO

Artist name: Michael Bogie
Artwork title: Ngali Yanhagirri

About the role

Corrections Victoria is committed to the delivery of responsive and culturally appropriate services that meet the objectives to reduce the overrepresentation of Aboriginal people within the Criminal Justice System.

Based in Bendigo, this role manages a case load of predominantly Aboriginal offenders with complex needs who have committed serious offences, delivering dynamic evidence based best practice case management.

The Aboriginal Case Manager also provides advice to Community Correctional Services managers and staff, on issues impacting the effective case management of Aboriginal offenders, and the development and implementation of cultural support plans.

This is an Aboriginal identified position; Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- An ability to communicate sensitively and effectively with members of the Victorian Koori Community
- An understanding of the Victorian Koori community, both socially and culturally, and the issues impacting on it
- Assertiveness and confidence in dealing with individuals exhibiting challenging behaviours
- An understanding of, or experience in, effective case management practices including proactive motivation and managing risk of complex individuals being case managed

Free public information session

Hear more about this role and meet with the department's Koori Employment Team, the Regional Aboriginal Justice Advisory Committee (RAJAC) Office, and the Bendigo Community Corrections team.

Tuesday 29 May 2018

Time: 6:00 PM

Venue: Bendigo Justice Centre, 3 William Vahland Place, Bendigo 3550

Register through our 'Events' page at: correctionsjobs.vic.gov.au

More information

To apply for the role or for more information please visit: correctionsjobs.vic.gov.au

Or contact the Koori Employment Team on:
8684-1751 or email: koori.employment@justice.vic.gov.au