Hunter New England Local Health District Mental Health Services acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the Nations within the Hunter New England Health Region. We acknowledge the significant place that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples hold in Australia, as the First People of this Nation. We pay our respects to our Elders, the knowledge holders of our culture and who keep our traditions, rituals, song lines alive. We respect the continuing connection to land, water and culture of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and its interconnectedness to social, emotional, physical and spiritual health and wellbeing. We acknowledge the many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities within our district, our Aboriginal staff and our non-Aboriginal allies as well as our community organisations that walk this journey with us to healing and are committed to improving the health disparities of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. We ask all those that walk, work and live on traditional Aboriginal lands to be respectful of culture and traditions.

Wandakaluwa, Minyang Welcome, Yaama, Anikanya Hello,
Dhinggana, How are you?

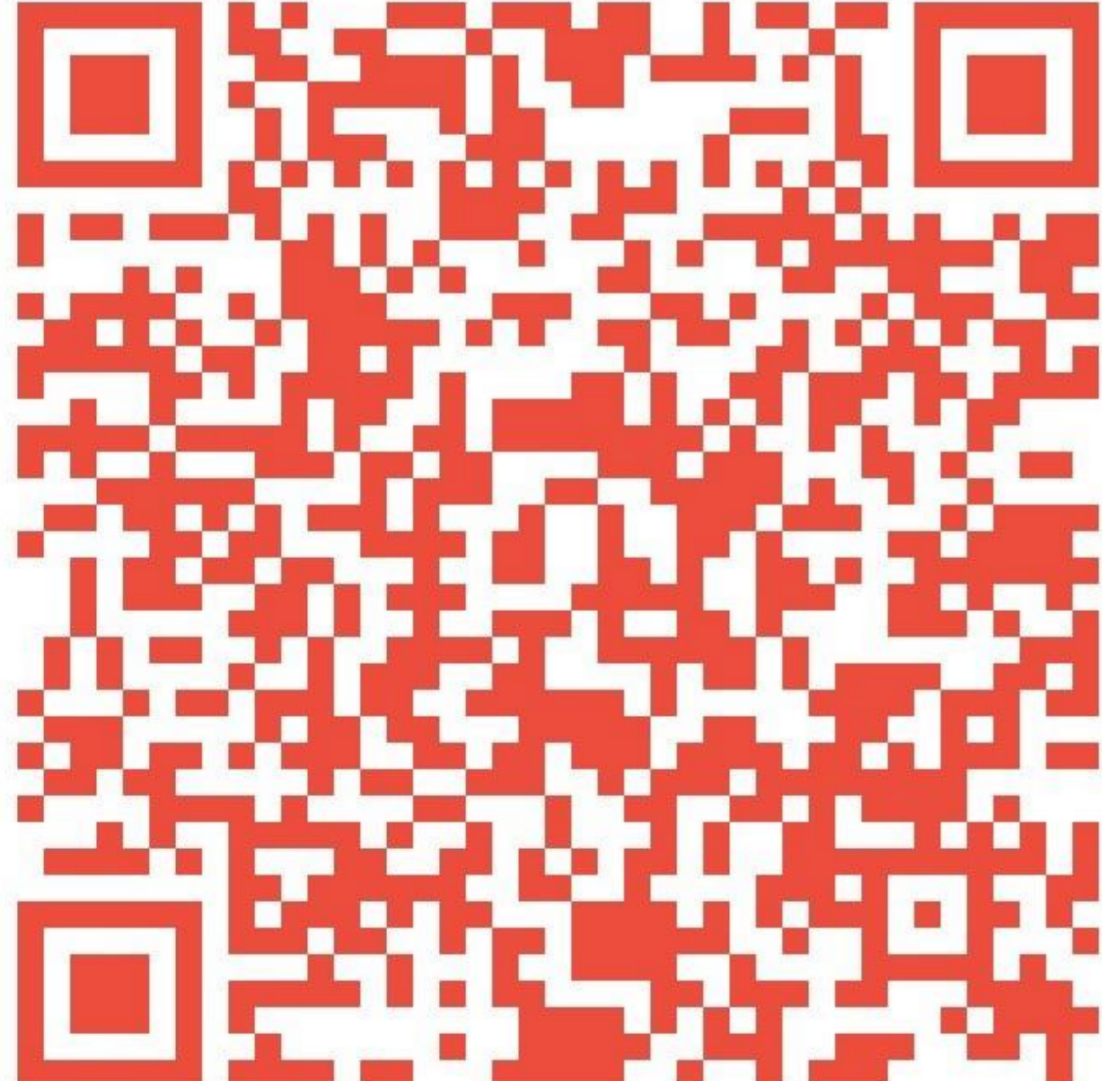

Maruung Maruung "Good good Deadly" Yarn up Feel Deadly application
