

Join Our Project Governance Group

We are looking for Project Governance Group members from across Western Australia to help guide our research

We are an Aboriginal-led research team based on Noongar Boodjar. Our project will listen to Aboriginal young people about their experiences with racism in schools and healthcare settings (like hospitals and GP clinics).

Prof Bep Uink,
Edith Cowan University

We're hoping to include:

- 4 Elders
- 5 Community members (18+ years)
- 10 Youth Community Co-researchers (14-25 years)

As a member of the Project Governance Group, you will:

- Help lead the direction of the project, making sure it reflects the voices and needs of community.
- Take part in six two-hour meetings between 2025-2027.
- Be paid $150 per hour ($300 per meeting). Travel support is also available for Perth-based members.

Want to get involved?

Use the QR code or link below to send us a short expression of interest. Please include your name, cultural connections, gender identity, and a few lines on why you'd like to join.