

IMPROVING FIRST NATIONS EXPERIENCES OF GENETIC HEALTH SERVICES

NCIG researchers are working to improve genetic health services through culturally safe practice with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients and their families by co-creating educational resources.

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR?

- Genetic Health Professionals and
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people (18+) with lived experience of a genetic health condition. We would love to hear from you if you or someone in your family:
  - has been to see a genetic counsellor or specialist,
  - has had genetic testing to learn more about health, or
  - has been diagnosed with a genetic condition

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

ACTIVITIES: A workshop series (2-3 x two-day workshops)

WHEN: April 2026 - June 2027 (Dates TBA)

WHERE: ANU campuses in Darwin (NT) or Canberra (ACT).
Travel expenses covered.
